Building Community in Tulsa, Oklahoma

Join us soon! We only have two homes left!

Choose where you live and how you live. Heartwood Commons offers another choice.

A Place to Call Home

You've seen those commercials – you know the ones that speak to adult children who find themselves in the position of having to decide where Mom or Dad should live. I dare say, none of us want that for our future selves or for our loved ones. That's one of the many reasons we Heartwood Commoners have chosen to make our move to Heartwood Commons now.

You might wonder, what do our families think of our decision? Well, let them tell you.

"Way to go Mom, you sound so excited! Seems like you've found exactly what you've been looking for. Way to be pro-active!" Brian - Pat's son.

"We can't wait until Mema moves to her new house!" Mary's grandchildren.

"I'm excited that you're getting to move into a neighborhood of supportive peers. I am glad you're getting to be with a group of active people in an engaging and caring community." Trent - Tricia's son.

"Moving to Heartwood is making mom happy, and that's all I care about." Stacie - Darlene's daughter.

"I'm so excited for you, Mom. It makes me feel good knowing you'll have people around you that care about you, and who, like you, want to live life to the fullest." Elizabeth - Suzy's daughter.

"Ruff. Ruff. Ruff. We are all in!" Molly and Cricket.
